To Whom it May Concern,

For information about regulations within the city limits of Arlington, Blakely, Damascus, and Jakin, please contact those jurisdictions. Early County Code Enforcement has no regulatory authority or responsibility within those cities.

The following information only pertains to the Unincorporated Area of Early County.

Early County does not require or issue local Business Licenses.

Early County does not have a Zoning Ordinance. Any reference to zoning in Q-Public or other tax related documentation, is only for taxation and assessment purposes.

In the unincorporated area of Early County, property line encroachments are regulated by setback regulations specific to the type of permitted activity (Building, MFG Home, MFG Home / Travel Trailer Park, Communications Tower, Solar Farm and Poultry Operation).

This letter is valid for one year from the date written.

Should you have any questions please don't hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read 'Phillip Law', is written over a light blue horizontal line.
